FINGER LAKES TRAILS & GREENWAYS CONFERENCE

connecting communities, promoting health, and strengthening local economies

September 23 and 24, 2011 • Cornell University, Ithaca, NY

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

Mobile Workshops - hands on learning – networking reception

An opportunity to get out in the field and see first-hand what others are doing to design terrific trails, raise funds, overcome challenges, and motivate volunteers followed by an early evening networking reception at the new Nevin Welcome Center at Cornell Plantations

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

Timely topics - practical information - sharing of experiences - networking

Experience a dynamic mix of keynotes, workshops, and panel discussions at Robert Purcell Community Center on Cornell University's North campus featuring timely issues, implementation tools and strategies, and interesting case studies designed to develop the skills to build, maintain, and advocate for trails that support healthy active living, tourism, economic development, sustainability, and alternative transportation.

Appropriate for meeting state training requirements for local planning and zoning boards.
Check with your local official to confirm.

Presented by Parks & Trails New York and the Finger Lakes Land Trust with support from the Park Foundation
