 A local law providing for establishment of a Traffic Violations Bureau
(Insert Title)
 of the Town of Dryden Justice Court.

Be it enacted by the Town Board of the Town of Dryden as follows:
(Name of Legislative Body)

1. This Local Law is adopted pursuant to authority given towns under of Municipal Home Rule Law Section 10(1)(i) and General Municipal Law 370 which permit a town to authorize the town justice court to establish a traffic violations bureau to assist the court in the disposition of certain infractions in relation to traffic violations..
2. The Town of Dryden Justice Court is hereby authorized to establish a traffic violations bureau as herein provided.
3. The traffic violations bureau is limited to the disposition of Village of Dryden parking tickets, to which the alleged violator pleads guilty. All fines assessed for a parking violation of a Village of Dryden ordinance or local law shall inure to the Village of Dryden. All non- guilty pleas shall be subject to adjudication and disposition in the Court.
4. The town justices are authorized to make arrangements with any public officer designated by them as may be necessary, convenient or prudent to administer such bureau including accepting pleas of guilty, collecting fines designated by the Court for pleas of guilty to such tickets, issuing receipts for such fines collected, accounting, at least monthly, for monies received, and the payment to the village treasurer, at least monthly, all such monies received.
5. The town justices are further authorized to do any and all acts, and take any and all steps necessary, convenient or prudent to implement the traffic violations bureau, provided such acts and steps are consistent with this local law and General Municipal Law Article 14-B.

6. The town justices may designate the fines to be paid for parking tickets for those violators pleading guilty which fines may be satisfied at the bureau, provided such fines are within the limits established as penalties for such offenses.
7. This local law shall take effect upon filing by the Secretary of State.
