To whom it may concern:

Hans Hass has been a member of our community and runs /owns Alpine roofing. He runs a successful company and would be a great asset to any community. He has constantly grown his business, staffing with local people. He personally is an outstanding citizen, and it shows in the way he runs his business. We are excited for him at the opportunity to grow his business in your region. He is community minded and genuinely wants to be involved. Hans and his company would be an asset wherever they locate.

Andrew Matviak
